Mr. Archie Wright Ingram has served West End Christian in an important capacity. Being the school's first principal, he has worked diligently in solving many problems that have faced our school, in making West End Christian an outstanding school in Tuscaloosa, and helping establish our school as the third largest private school in Alabama.

Mr. Ingram has been a friend to each student and has been an enthusiastic and Christian leader. Each and every student gives him their thanks.

Foreign Language

Foreign Language

The foreign language department though miniscule in quantity, is not lacking in quality. Students in the first year of language received instruction from Miss Rhonda Quest and Mrs. Lucia Partin: Miss Quest also guided students in their second year of Spanish. The department is small in size but not lacking in spirit. The class size was inductive to individual instruction, and the department looks forward to productive years in the future.

Speech

W.E.C.'s speech department with Mrs. Partin at the head, places emphasis on the individual needs of the student. The Speech department has gained self-confidence and poise by reading and telling stories to the grammer school classes. The students also had experience in giving after dinner speeches after having been treated to a delicious dinner by Mrs. Partin.

Bible Strengthens Students at W.E.C. Spiritually

Bible Department

Spiritual growth is one of the most important aspects of an individual's life. The Bible Department strives to make spiritual experiences real and meaningful in each student's life at school and home. Mr. Breen and Mr. Sayler strive to teach each student that he is an individual person in the eyes of Jesus Christ; that if one lets Christ come into his life, life will be much more rewarding.

Precision Is Required

Demanding accuracy in logic and the understanding of the necessity of precise methods, the Mathematics Department helps to give the students an insight into the many uses of mathematics in all facets for education. These teachers, with Mr. Jones, Mr. Frith, and Mrs. Chaffin strive to clarify the purpose in these trying courses and to convey its application to other fields.

Burt and Russell once said, "Mathematics possesses not only truth, but supreme beauty . . . sublimely pure, and capable of a stern perfection such as only the greatest art can show." Our instructors echo these sentiments early exposure to working experience teach students value with their concern for perfection and discipline in foundamental concepts.

by the Math and Science Departments

Scientific knowledge is a must in our world today. Mr. Jones, Mr. Frith and Mr. Bolton are the science instructors of West End Christian High School. Helping the students meet the challenge of tomorrow by preparing the student of today is the aim of the Science Department. It is the main concern of this department to train scientific minds to reason inductively and draw conclusions logically.

Each decade the vast accumulation of scientific knowledge seems to double. It is the responsibility of the Science Department to be aware of current discoveries, since the teaching of out-of-date material dulls the scientific spirit of inquiry. As knowledge can be built only upon knowledge, the new and the old must be related.

Through observations, experiments and visiting professors the teachers try to interest and inform students of the physical and biological phase of their environment and of themselves.

A Journey Into The Past

History

"The old is not dead; it is alive for the man who looks at it with new eyes." To help each student gain a knowledge of his relationship to past and world events, to provide students with the learning experience which will allow them to develop the skills, attitudes, beliefs, and knowledge necessary for good, responsible citizenship and for a happy life in our world today.

Courses offered this year are Economics, American History, World History, Civics and Problems of Democracy.

The worth and dignity of the individual is the focal point as our American System is compared and contrasted with other societies in the process of analyzing their economic, social, political, intellectual, religious and esthetic developments and institutions. One of the primary aims of the History Department is to aid students in a developing and understanding of, and devotion to, the ideas of America.

Outstanding Curriculum pursued

To be a good citizen it is necessary for all students to correlate their ideas and to master the communicative skills—listening, speaking, reading, spelling, and writing. Under the excellent guidance of our English teachers—Miss Free, Mrs. Hynds, Mrs. Partin—it has been possible for the students at West End Christian High to be brought closer to this goal. The English Department gives to each student a chance to achieve whatever aims his talent and interest suggest.

One of the aims of the student's education is to increase his general knowledge of ancient and modern literature and to skill by concentration fundamental techniques. Appreciation gained from a study of literature can mature the students aesthetic sense, and enhance his understanding of human behavior. West End Christian is proud to claim this outstanding department whose emphasis on excellence has resulted in a fine English background for every student.

Swing With Music

The Music Department strives to create a rewarding experience in all aspects of music. Emphasis is placed on self-expression and musicianship, and fulfills the need in every student for an appreciation of beauty. Various performances throughout the year such as performing at the various nursing homes and other schools during the Christmas season and another concert entitled "Spring Festival of Song" presented during May gave the students opportunity for continued musical growth.

There hasn't been one dull moment
In grammar school this year.
We have worlds of little talkers,
And many who never hear.

Everyone enjoys the singing,
Our bible stories too—
Speaking of building artist
Oh! yeah we have a few.

There are always interesting things to do,
Nearly always something new.
If you don't believe they're smart,
Come see—I challenge you.

We hope we've been constructive
While plucking out the weed,
Preparing good and fertile ground
To plant life's little seed.

We talk always of sharing,
Politeness is a must,
We practice love in every way,
So that in our world they will trust;
Now the time has come again
Our goodbyes we must say
The best to these little ones
In the very smallest way.

The West End Christian cheerleaders are a group of eight lively girls chosen for their ability, appearance, character, and poise. They also must maintain a C average during the year. These girls give up hours of their time, not only to practice cheering, but also to learn pom pom routines, and to make pep banners. The only pay they get comes from the spirited show by students. The purpose of these cheerleaders is to lead the cheering at all sport events and to promote school spirit. To help build the spirit this year, the cheerleaders planned pep rallies, and attended every game out of town. They even rolled players rooms and put up posters. These cheerleaders surely instill school spirit, enthusiasm and loyalty in our whole school with their own devotion to W.E.C. W-e-s-t E-n-d spells Number 1 in our school area.

Crusaders Gain Playoff Position

West End Christian School, in its first season of athletic competition, appeared to be on its way to a dismal season a few weeks ago.

The Crusaders were straggling along with a 1-6 record, and the six losses had all been in a row. Today they are 6-7 overall, 6-4 in district play and they are on their way to the District 1 playoffs. "We have really come a long way," head coach Alton Johnson said. "We made a few personnel changes and that has helped us."

"Whether we win or not its been a great season," Johnson said. "We've made such good progress. We've won our last four straight and five of our last six. You just can't complain about that. I'll tell you something else, too. We've had great support from the parents and students."

A few of the Crusaders' outstanding batters are catcher, Sonny Burnette and shortstop, Mark Crocker. Third baseman, Curtis Hall and first baseman, Steve Estes are the sluggers.

Sophomore Steve Pate is the team's top pitcher. The juniors have also played well according to Coach Johnson. "With all the young kids we've got, we should be tough next year, and as the coach, I am really looking forward to it."

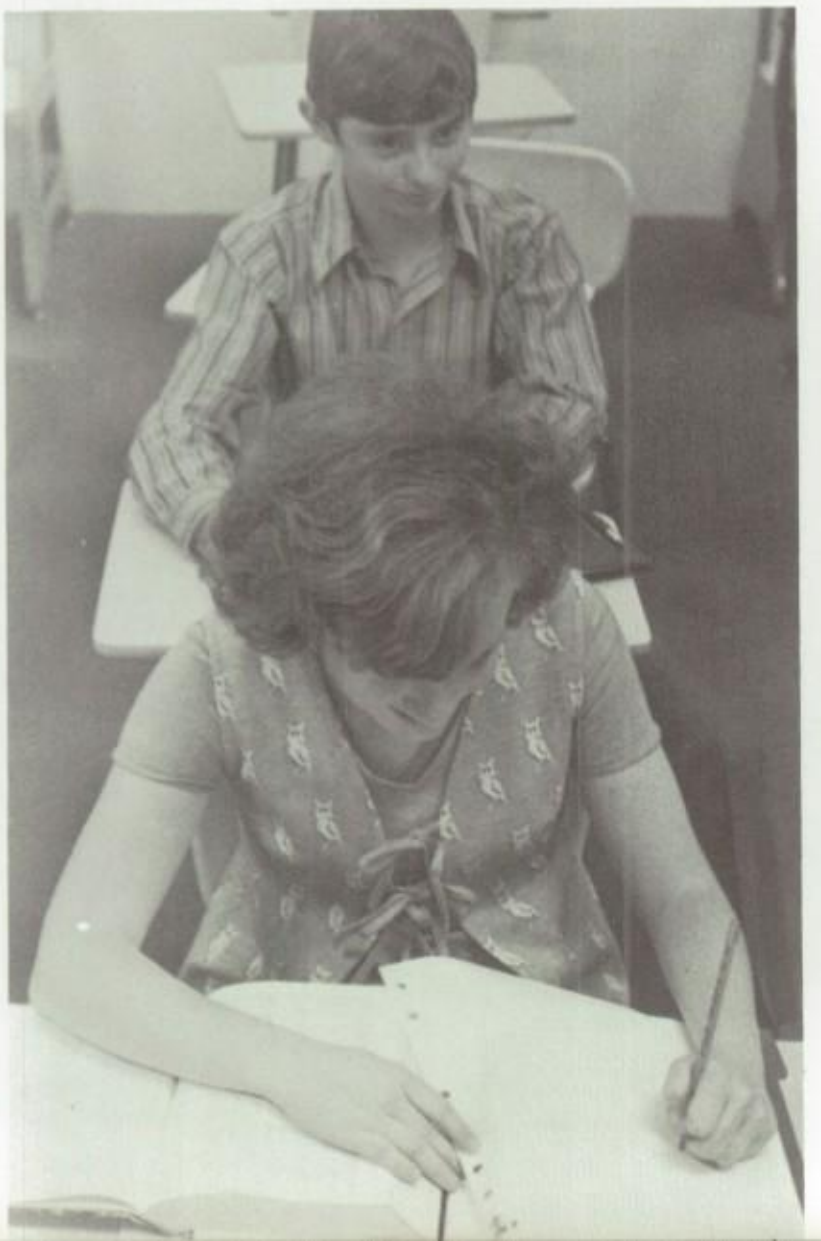
Underclassmen



Juniors Class of 1971

Although Juniors are the inbetween class, they have expressed their ideas and made West End Christian No. 1 in their hearts. This being our first year, we have faced many hardships, but have overcome them and looked ahead to the future. We are planning to be a more honored class in '72!

A Junior realizes the importance of his second year at W.E.C., for in the brief period of time, each individual must grow up, achieve maturity, and gain the wisdom to accept the responsibility and leadership of their next high school year. They must make the most of their Junior Year.

WHAT IS IT?

Eighth Grade

This being the eighth grade, we still feel self reliant and dependant on others. Even though we have had many hardships, we are begining to realize now how important school life is. We want to make "our school the best" for years to come. With God's help, we'll continue to mature in Christian faith and keep our standards.

Seventh Grade

Being seventh graders, we have tried to make the most of our school year. At first we did not know what was expected of us, but now we really feel that we have been fortunate to have been able to come to W.E.C. Having received a higher standard of Christian ideals, we are looking forward to a more enlightning school year in 1971-72.
